Early in the morning

.....this opening phase in Matthew's gospel evokes a sense of both stillness and expectation. Like waking early after a night of storms to see the world altered and damaged, but with the promise of regeneration.

Throughout the liturgical year, in both the old and new testaments we hear and read of God's promise of our deliverance from sin. In the New Testament Jesus tells us repeatedly that he is the Lamb of God, that he will die for our sins so that we might be saved. That we will destroy the temple but he will build it up again in three days.

Every year, starting with the Supper of the Lord on Holy Thursday night, we remember in exquisite detail the Last Supper with Jesus bidding us farewell, telling us once again that he is die for us, but that he will conquer death and rise again so that we might join him in eternal life.

As his time draws closer, he becomes quite explicit in his explanation of what is to come. Predicting his imminent betrayal and death. His behavior in the garden of Gethsemane makes it clear he knows precisely what is about to befall him.

On Good Friday we listen, word for word to John's account of the trial and death of Jesus on the cross. It is compelling in the horror, the cruelty and the injustice that humans can meter out. It is even more compelling in the simple line of truth that Jesus holds to, in his underlying faith in God as he puts himself completely in his Father's hands, even to death. The account is certain. Jesus of Nazareth died on the cross and Jesus Christ, the son of God, was sacrificed on the cross for us. Somehow, I am never quite prepared for John's account of the crucifixion.

Then we are left

Then, early in the morning, on the third day, we go with Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, as she is so anonymously called, to the tomb.

He's gone!

They are surprised and confused. Some version of Matthew's Gospel tells us an Angel appeared and told them that He had risen, others don't, but whatever happened, you can almost hear the pennies drop as they, and you with them, finally understand and realize that the promise has been fulfilled.

He has risen!!

HAPPY EASTER FROM ALL AT CARITAS AUSTRALIA!

Thank you for your continued support for Project Compassion – past, present and future. Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow For All Future Generations. Thank you for supporting Caritas Australia's Project Compassion 2023 Lenten appeal.

You can still donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available from your parish, by visiting caritas.org.au/project-compassion or by calling 1800 024 413.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: Churches across the world rejoice with those who are initiated into the Church on this weekend. Baptised in the name of our God, the Father, Son and Spirit, we celebrate their sharing in the fullness of God's Spirit in Confirmation. They gather with us around the table of the Lord and share Eucharist. Blest are we as they witness the presence of the risen Christ for us.

Full Communion: Locally we welcomed Michael and Karen welcomed into full Communion with the Catholic Church through the Sacraments of Confirmation and reception of First Eucharist. Jubilee Parish celebrates joyfully this great occasion and thanks God and these our friends.

The parish is extremely grateful to their catechists, sponsors and family who have walked with them on this journey. May the good work that God has begun in you, flow through into even greater wonders.

Confirmation: On a different but similar note, Nicole celebrates the completion of her initiation with the sacrament of Confirmation. "Send your Holy Spirit upon her to be her helper and guide. Give her the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence. Fill her with the spirit of wonder and awe in your presence."

It is the prayer for each of us confirmed in the fullness of God's Spirit. May it be our resurrection.

Praise God and our liturgists! Jubilee Parish is extremely grateful to all who have worked so hard to energise our worship throughout Holy Week. From Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday there has been an enormous amount of planning, organisation and practices. The list involved is large, too large to even attempt naming. THANK YOU!

Special notes to the facilitators of the different celebrations, the musicians, and singers who put in extra practices. Easter blessings be with you for your spirited involvement.

Happy Easter! Fathers Dang, Marty and I are extremely grateful for the support and Easter greetings. Our prayer is that the whole parish be abundantly blest with the life of the Risen Christ.

Hopefully the Easter Bilby has been able to visit and grace you with some gifts as well. Early Christians, recognizing the power of the egg as a symbol for new life, connected eggs to the new life found in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ at Easter. As Jesus rose from the tomb, the egg symbolized new life emerging from the eggshell. Whether your new life of Easter is celebrated with eggs, chocolate or bubbles, enjoy! The Easter season goes for fifty days. It is longer than Lent for we are Easter people and so more alive with the life that Jesus brings.

Also, spare a thought (and prayer) for the native bilby and its ongoing aliveness!

The Children and Families Team at Evangelisation Brisbane have created a video resource with some ideas to engage the kids in our families, parishes and communities, so that they can make a new beginning with Jesus this Holy Week also. You can access the video, and the other Holy Week and Easter resources here: <https://tinyurl.com/kidshwvideo>

CO-CREATED PRAYER—Engaging students in the religious life of your school. Co-created Prayer is designed to animate the religious life of your school. This model of praying together involves inviting students to join one of five groups - Sacred Space, Sacred Word, Sacred Understanding, Sacred Prayers and Sacred Music - who share the responsibility for creating and leading prayer together. Through inquiry, student voice and agency is enhanced, supporting "fully conscious and active participation in liturgical celebrations" (Sacrosanctum Concilium, 14). Co-created Prayer provides ways to support learners and participants with different strengths and develops collaboration skills (connecting with the general capabilities within the Australian Curriculum). The model has been used successfully with students from 5-6 years of age to adults. For details on the model used, go to <https://www.cocreatedprayer.com/about-the-model>

VOICE IN THE WILDERNESS-EASTER TO PENTECOST DISCUSSION RESOURCE In September 2021, Archbishop Mark Coleridge publicly endorsed the Uluru Statement From the Heart and made an historic commitment on behalf of the Catholic Church in the Archdiocese of Brisbane. Evangelisation Brisbane, in partnership with the Edmund Rice Centre, have created a resource that invites Catholics to reflect with Christ when reading the Uluru Statement From the Heart. Designed to take people on a journey in the weeks between Easter and Pentecost, Voice Crying in the Wilderness includes scripture, prayer, and discussion questions for individuals or groups to engage with the significance of the Uluru Statement and our response to it. You can download the resource here: <https://tinyurl.com/VWresource23>

ANZAC Day Mass at Sacred Heart Rosalie

A special ANZAC Day Mass will be celebrated at Sacred Heart Church Rosalie on Tuesday 25 April at 9am. The liturgy will include prayers for those killed, wounded or affected by war, and during the Prayer of the Faithful members of the congregation will be invited to light a candle for their deceased relatives and friends. A brief ANZAC ceremony, including recitation of the Ode, the Last Post, a minute's silence, Reveille, wreath laying and the National Anthem will take place after the final blessing.

Morning tea will be shared outside after the service, with plenty of ANZAC biscuits on offer.

A wonderful way to mark Australia's special day!

SUMMIT23: SUMMIT23 is a three-day gathering of clergy, religious, educators, catechists, lay leaders and communities from across the Archdiocese of Brisbane for keynote presentations, workshops, panel discussions, prayer and encounter with Jesus. The Summit is intended to empower, inspire and equip delegates to engage in the mission of the Church.

Archbishop Mark Coleridge will share the Apostolic Priorities for the Archdiocese and will be joined by keynote speaker Sherry Weddell (author of Forming Intentional Disciples and co-founder of the Catherine of Siena Institute, USA)

The Summit is a key moment in the implementation of the decrees of the Plenary Council and will be the principal gathering for the Archdiocese in 2023.

When: 6pm Thursday 18th - 3pm Saturday 20th May 2023

Where: Riverlife Centre (47 Jennifer St, Seventeen Mile Rocks, QLD)

To find out more, go to brisbanesummit.com

If you would like to register please contact the parish office or Fr Gerry

COVID UPDATE FROM BISHOP KEN. As we prepare for our Easter celebrations, I'd like to share some updated COVID protocols for liturgical practices. Recently, in reviewing our current protocols, we consulted with a infectious diseases expert. He has encouraged us to resume normal practices as much as possible as in his words, "Covid will remain part of the human viral ecology for the foreseeable future".

New Guidelines: Within the Archdiocese We will reintroduce the reception of communion from the chalice from Holy Thursday. Those who are unwell should refrain from the chalice or receiving communion on the tongue. (We will work towards this in the Easter season. Fr Gerry)

Review and Update of Current Guidelines:

- Anointings: It is no longer deemed necessary to wipe hands between individual anointings.
- Sign of Peace: People may choose to shake hands or embrace if they wish to do so.
- Veneration of the Cross: It is recommended that parishioners be encouraged not to kiss the cross during this time.

May this holy season be a blessed time for you and your parish community. Yours sincerely in Christ,

Bishop Ken Howell

SAFEGUARDING AT JUBILEE: Jubilee Parish and the Archdiocese of Brisbane are committed to safeguarding the wellbeing of the parish community, particularly children and vulnerable adults. Protecting the vulnerable from abuse is everyone's business and we rely on the whole community to ensure we meet our Safeguarding responsibilities. For most people, this means knowing who to contact if you have any concerns or questions about Safeguarding in the parish. These contacts are:

Ashgrove: Catherine Cranitch
Bardon: Christine Thomas
Herston, Newmarket: Jennifer Cahill (Sun 7.30am)
Rosalie: Kirsty McKay (Sun 5.30pm)
Italian community: Lucy Valeri
Korean community: Michael Lee

For volunteers, it means registering through the Archdiocese Welcome Portal and undertaking some short online training. Volunteers who work with children or vulnerable adults must undertake additional online training and provide details of their Blue Card and positive police check. Access to the portal and the forms are available on the Jubilee Parish website. Thank you to all our hardworking volunteers for your ongoing support and in helping maintain the safety of all Jubilee Parishioners. You can find more information at jubileeparish.com/volunteers or you can email me at lsl.jubilee@bne.catholic.net.au.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of goodwill.
We praise you, we bless you,
We adore you, we glorify you.
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world
have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer.
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us
For you alone are the Holy One,
You alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (all bow) born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

In Transition

We especially pray for
Patrick John Cranitch whose anniversary occurs at this time and for the souls of all the faithful departed;
May they rest in peace.
