Do you know the joy of the resurrection? The Risen Lord Jesus revealed the glory of his resurrection to his disciples gradually and over a period of time. Even after the apostles saw the empty tomb and heard the reports of Jesus' appearance to the women, they were still weak in faith and fearful of being arrested by the Jewish authorities.

When Jesus appeared to them he offered proofs of his resurrection by showing them the wounds of his passion, his pierced hands and side. He calmed their fears and brought them peace, the peace which reconciles sinners and makes us friends of God.

Jesus did something which only love and trust can do. He commissioned his weak and timid apostles to bring the good news of the Gospel to the ends of the earth.

This sending out of the disciples is parallel to the sending out of Jesus by his heavenly Father. Jesus fulfilled his mission through his perfect love and obedience to the will of his Father. He called his first disciples and he now calls each one of us to do the same. Just as he gave his first disciples the gift of the Holy Spirit, so he breathes on each of us the same Holy Spirit who equips us with new life, power, joy, and courage to live each day as followers of the Risen Lord.

The last apostle to meet the resurrected Lord was the first to go with him to Jerusalem at Passover time. The apostle Thomas was a natural pessimist. When Jesus proposed that they visit Lazarus after receiving news of his illness, Thomas said to the disciples: "Let us also go, that we may die with him" (John 11:16). While Thomas deeply loved the Lord, he lacked the courage to stand with Jesus in his passion and crucifixion. After Jesus' death, Thomas made the mistake of withdrawing from the other apostles. He sought loneliness rather than fellowship in his time of trial and adversity. He doubted the women who saw the resurrected Jesus and he doubted his own fellow apostles.

Through the gift of faith we recognize the Risen Lord and receive new life.

When Thomas finally had the courage to rejoin the other apostles, the Lord Jesus made his presence known to him and reassured him that he had indeed overcome death and risen again. When Thomas recognized his Master, he believed and exclaimed that Jesus was truly Lord and truly God! Through the gift of faith we, too, proclaim that Jesus is our personal Lord and our God. He died and rose that we, too, might have new life in him. The Lord offers each of us new life in his Holy Spirit that we may know him personally and walk in this new way of life through the power of his resurrection. Do you believe in the good news of the Gospel and in the power of the Holy Spirit to bring you new life, hope, and joy?

11am: Adoration, Confession, Rosary, Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

12pm: Benediction, Blessing of Religious Images and Objects.

EASTER SERVICES:

The Children and Families Team at Evangelisation Brisbane have created a video resource with some ideas to engage the kids in our families, parishes and communities, so that they can make a new beginning with Jesus. You can access the video, and the other Easter resources here: <https://tinyurl.com/>

ANZAC Day Mass at Sacred Heart Rosalie: A special ANZAC Day Mass will be celebrated at Sacred Heart Church Rosalie on Tuesday 25 April at 9am. The liturgy will include prayers for those killed, wounded or affected by war, and during the Prayer of the Faithful members of the congregation will be invited to light a candle for their deceased relatives and friends.

A brief ANZAC ceremony, including recitation of the Ode, the Last Post, a minute's silence, Reveille, wreath laying and the National Anthem will take place after the final blessing. Morning tea will be shared outside after the service, with plenty of ANZAC biscuits on offer. A wonderful way to mark Australia's special day!

POPE FRANCIS EASTER MESSAGE: Christ is risen; He is truly risen!"

The Pope explained how the word "truly" in the Easter proclamation underscores that the Lord's resurrection is a reality, not just wishful thinking. And this means that humanity's journey has a sure footing in hope and therefore can move forward with confidence in facing the many challenges now and ahead. Humanity is called today as well "to make haste" to meet Jesus Christ, the goal of our journey and hope of the world. "May we too make haste to progress on a journey of reciprocal trust: trust among individuals, peoples and nations," he said. "May we allow ourselves to experience amazement at the joyful proclamation of Easter, at the light that illumines the darkness and the gloom in which, all too often, our world finds itself enveloped."

Looking at the urgent efforts needed to resolve conflicts and divisions and pursue paths of peace and fraternity, the Pope praised those who are doing all they can to offer assistance and welcome to people fleeing war and poverty. He asked that the Lord may open all our hearts to do the same.

The Pope prayed for peace for the "beloved Ukrainian people" and that the light of Easter may shine on the people of Russia.

Remembering the holy city of Jerusalem, the Pope prayed for a resumption of dialogue between Israelis and Palestinians, so that peace may prevail. He prayed for help to Lebanon as it struggles to regain stability and unity. The Pope asked for help for Haiti where social and economic hardship still weigh heavily on the people struggling for a way out of their many challenges.

May the Lord give comfort to refugees, deportees, political prisoners and migrants, the Pope prayed, especially the most vulnerable.

VOLUNTEERING AT JUBILEE: Together with our hardworking clergy and parish staff, Jubilee Parish operates with the assistance of a large team of volunteers in many ministries. If you're interested in volunteering, please talk with one of the other volunteers in your local church community.

Some ministries require volunteers to register via the Archdiocese Volunteer Portal, undertake Safeguarding training and provide police check or Blue Card details. These safeguards ensure the most vulnerable members of our community continue to remain and feel safe. Rules regarding volunteer registration are currently being reviewed, so if you have any doubt on whether or not a volunteer role needs to be registered or which training and other documentation they require, please contact me at lsr.jubilee@bne.catholic.net.au. Thank you to all our volunteers. Jennifer Cahill

CO-CREATED PRAYER—Engaging students in the religious life of your school. Co-created Prayer is designed to animate the religious life of your school. This model of praying together involves inviting students to join one of five groups - Sacred Space, Sacred Word, Sacred Understanding, Sacred Prayers and Sacred Music - who share the responsibility for creating and leading prayer together. Through inquiry, student voice and agency is enhanced, supporting "fully conscious and active participation in liturgical celebrations" (Sacrosanctum Concilium, 14). Co-created Prayer provides ways to support learners and participants with different strengths and develops collaboration skills (connecting with the general capabilities within the Australian Curriculum). The model has been used successfully with students from 5-6 years of age to adults. For details on the model used, go to <https://www.cocreatedprayer.com/about-the-model>

LAVALLA ROOF UPDATE: Work has commenced on the roof with the successful removal of the roof. Next week the new metal roof will be put on. It's a work in progress but all running to schedule.

LAMPS ABLAZE:

In the lead up to the Archdiocesan Summit, Archbishop Mark has published a document entitled "Lamps Ablaze: Apostolic Priorities for the Archdiocese of Brisbane from 2023 (www.tinyurl.com/lampsablaze) which outlines seven priorities for our local Church. During the Easter season Evangelisation Brisbane will provide information on this. Part of this is a weekend Homily. If you would like a copy of this weeks Homily, email or phone the Parish office.

Priority One: Teaching Prayer

"We must first find our way into a new and deeper experience of prayer not just as one of many elements in a busy life but as a way of life for all the baptised. Often we urge people to pray but don't really teach them how to pray in a way that moves beyond the prayers of childhood and youth. Now is the time to teach ways of prayer which are mature and all-embracing. Christian prayer begins not with speaking but with listening; and learning to pray is therefore learning to listen—to listen even to the silences of God. If all we do is speak, then in the words of Jesus we "babble like the pagans" (Matt 6:7).

But if we speak after listening and in response to God who always has the first word, then we speak according to the mind of the Holy Spirit. That's what we need to teach and learn."

Archbishop Mark Coleridge

VOICE IN THE WILDERNESS-EASTER TO PENTECOST DISCUSSION RESOURCE In September 2021, Archbishop Mark Coleridge publicly endorsed the Uluru Statement From the Heart and made an historic commitment on behalf of the Catholic Church in the Archdiocese of Brisbane. Evangelisation Brisbane, in partnership with the Edmund Rice Centre, have created a resource that invites Catholics to reflect with Christ when reading the Uluru Statement From the Heart. Designed to take people on a journey in the weeks between Easter and Pentecost, Voice Crying in the Wilderness includes scripture, prayer, and discussion questions for individuals or groups to engage with the significance of the Uluru Statement and our response to it. You can download the resource here: <https://tinyurl.com/VWresource23>

SAFEGUARDING AT JUBILEE:

Jubilee Parish and the Archdiocese of Brisbane are committed to safeguarding the wellbeing of the parish community, particularly children and vulnerable adults. Protecting the vulnerable from abuse is everyone's business and we rely on the whole community to ensure we meet our Safeguarding responsibilities.

For most people, this means knowing who to contact if you have any concerns or questions about Safeguarding in the parish. These contacts are:

- Ashgrove: Catherine Cranitch
- Bardon: Christine Thomas
- Herston, Newmarket: Jennifer Cahill (Sun 7.30am)
- Rosalie: Kirsty McKay (Sun 5.30pm)
- Italian community: Lucy Valeri
- Korean community: Michael Lee

For volunteers, it means registering through the Archdiocese Welcome Portal and undertaking some short online training. Volunteers who work with children or vulnerable adults must undertake additional online training and provide details of their Blue Card and positive police check. Access to the portal and the forms are available on the Jubilee Parish website. Thank you to all our hardworking volunteers for your ongoing support and in helping maintain the safety of all Jubilee Parishioners. You can find more information at jubileeparish.com/volunteers or you can email me at lsr.jubilee@bne.catholic.net.au. Jennifer Cahill, Local Safeguarding Representative

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of goodwill.
We praise you, we bless you,
We adore you, we glorify you.
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us
For you alone are the Holy One,
You alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (all bow) born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

In Transition

As a Parish family we welcome Oscar Anderson, Eva Anderson, Millie Walker, Lily & Oscar Ross, Aria & Avery Kennelly, Agnes Kelermen, Maya Tector, Walter Landes & Charlotte Montefiore who were baptised this weekend.

We celebrate with the families of Rachael Reaves & Blake Phillips who were married this weekend.

We especially pray for James Walsh & Josephine Ercole who passed away recently and for the souls of all the faithful departed;
May they rest in peace.
