"Learn from me."

After weeks from Matthew schooling us in discipleship it is back to focusing on God. God reveals God's self to us as a parent does to a child. We learn from our Parent God and live in the Spirit so we find rest from all that burdens us.

This much-loved and encouraging passage tells of the intimacy of the relationship between the Almighty and the Son. The Son does nothing but what he sees the Father doing. The Father loves the Son so much that all is entrusted to the Son. The Son gives life as the Father gives life. This is the flow into which we are immersed.

It is encouragement in the weighty-ness of life.

The 'yoke' is often a symbol of the Law of Moses, which could seem burdensome with its many commands. We are to share Christ's yoke. Christ is a sympathetic, gentle and humble brother who shares life with disciples. This is the Spirit living in us.

God comes to us in our bliss and in our need. Being open to receiving from God is a way of the learner. Fr Gerry

FEAST OF ST BENEDICT—11 JULY: We stand on holy ground when we think about the Saints and their impact they have on us. In an ideal world, we are all in some way Saints, yet there are special people called by God, who hear God's voice more clearly than others. Saint Benedict reminds us that we hear the voice of God in our lives, yet we need discern what God is asking of us.

St Benedict who was a monk-has given many remarks for us to ponder. As we celebrate his life today, here are some of his more memorable quotes. "Sleepy people like to make excuses." Think about that.

"Let us pray together so that there is peace."

We always need peace in the world. There are so many people suffering from violence and war. Yet the one remark that I think needs the most reflection for us is this: "Idealness- is the enemy of the soul, therefore we should always be about manual labour." We need to keep busy, not just with basic tasks, but the work of the kingdom. Now more than ever with the onset of technology, we need to do those mundane tasks, because they keep our minds alert and stop us from falling into darkness. Enjoy the ordinary things today. Fr Marty

SHOULDERING THE YOKE:

- Fr Dang leaves us this week as he has been asked by the Archbishop to be Administrator of Acacia Ridge Parish. We are grateful for his enthusiastic ministry in Jubilee. We will miss his laugh and the children will miss his endless supply of zooper doopers! God who is The Good Shepherd will continue to empower his ministry.
- Fr Jose is coming from Ipswich parish where he has been the associate. He is from Kerala but a different religious order from Fr Rony. Fr Jose is a member of the Congregation of Carmelites of Mary Immaculate. This is the first indigenous religious congregation in the Catholic Church of India. Fr Jose will be arriving for the weekend of 23 July.
- Fr Jose Eloja is a Camillian priest. If you wish to find out more about who St Camille's de Lellis was and the order he founded look up last week's newsletter. Fr Jose has moved into Canali House at Herston this week. Other members of his order will be following. Their ministry is to hospitals. Fr Jose will be the chaplain to the Royal Brisbane and St Andrew's hospital.
- Bishop Ken Howell is to be installed as the seventh bishop of Toowoomba this Tuesday. For forty years Bishop Ken has been a faithful priest and then Auxillary Bishop of Brisbane. The Archdiocese has benefited from his variety of gifts and dedication. We pray for him as under Christ he becomes the chief shepherd of the Toowoomba Diocese. He will have to enlarge his winter wardrobe and get used to driving his VW. His first priests' council meeting is in Cunnamulla a short 7 hour drive. Fr Gerry

GREETINGS AND FAREWELLS,

Fr Gerry has announced to all of you in last weeks parish bulletin that my ministry at this lovely parish of Jubilee will be concluded this week. It hardly seems possible that more than a year ago I arrived in the parish and yet here I am all packed up and ready to move again for a new mission.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to each and every one of you for the privilege of being a part of this wonderful parish family. In so many ways, you have affirmed the gift of my priesthood vocation, also taught me what it means to be a priest.

My spiritual director once advised me that "the first three years of your priesthood is a honeymoon, all care but no responsibility, so enjoy as much as you can". I am not sure how it was true to him, but one thing that I am certain about is that my "priesthood honeymoon" has yet extended here at Jubilee parish. I experienced so much love and joy, especially the way in which the people of this parish have embraced me. I have come to know so many wonderful people in this parish who have an incredible faith. There is so much that I have learned. It has been so wonderful.

Therefore, I am grateful for your faith, your kindness, your generosity, your laughter, hugs and kisses... I am thankful for many relationships that I have formed in this parish and many ways the people of this parish have helped me to grow in my relationship with God. I thank God for the time I have been here.

Leaving and change are emotional no matter who you are. My heart is truly filled with sadness to say good bye, but it also embarks an excitement with a new journey ahead for me. Wherever I might be, I hope that you remember me in your prayers and I will do likewise.

I would like to borrow the words of St. Paul to the Philippians: 1:3-6, 9-11 to close my words of farewell to all of you.

"I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus."

Fr Dang

LITURGY NOTES: The Liturgy of the Word at Mass

The Liturgy of the Word is the first of the two central parts of the Mass. This quote from Lectionary for Mass: Introduction expresses beautifully the role of scripture in worship: The Church is nourished spiritually at the table of God's word and at the table of the Eucharist: from the one it grows in wisdom and from the other in holiness. ....continued page 3

LITURGY NOTES CONTINUED.....The structure of the Liturgy of the Word at Sunday Mass is: First Reading, Responsorial Psalm, Second Reading, Gospel Acclamation, Gospel, Homily, Profession of Faith (Creed), Prayer of the Faithful. The first reading is taken from the Old Testament, except in Easter Time when it comes from Acts. The psalm is a scriptural response to the first reading. The second reading comes from one of the New Testament epistles (letters). The gospel reading is the high point of the Liturgy of the Word, so the assembly stands and acclaims Christ's presence by singing an acclamation. The homily unfolds the mysteries of faith contained in the readings and relates it to our lives today. A short silence should follow the homily. The pattern of the Liturgy of the Word is one of dialogue - between reader and listener, between God and us. We participate in this dialogue by listening carefully to the reader and preacher, by being attentive to what God is saying to us during the readings and the homily, and by joining in the assembly's responses.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (all bow)
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
