THE POWER OF MANY

The readings this week remind us that we are all responsible for each other. This is a duty that we are asked to take on as disciples, recalling the solemn promise of Christ "where two or three meet in my name, I shall be there with them".

This responsibility is introduced in the 1st

reading where we're told to warn the wicked to renounce their ways. Whether or not the sinner listens to the warning is up to them, but Ezekiel tells us we'll be held accountable if we recognise the wickedness and do not warn them. That's a big ask, when we don't know how the other person is going to react, so Matthew's Gospel gives us a kind of road map for how to approach a brother or sister who has done something wrong.

Matthew suggests first speaking directly with them in private. It seems obvious, but this step is often missed because it's easier to complain to others about what someone else is doing, than to discuss it with the individual themselves. Speaking calmly, in private, can stop a problem from escalating and provide an opportunity to make amends without embarrassment. However, if that doesn't work, Matthew suggests taking one or several others with you to talk to the person, so they can verify what you are saying and observe the response first hand.

While Ezekiel refers to the sinner as a wicked wretch, Matthew refers to them as a sister or brother, which makes the interaction much more personal and the need to intervene more urgent. St Paul, in the 2nd reading, refers to them as a neighbour and recommends approaching them with love as "love is the one thing that cannot hurt your neighbour". The recommendation, then, is to act not with judgement or anger, but to listen, speak and act with love as if the other person is a treasured family member or neighbour, because that is, in reality, who they are.

A warm welcome to Monsignor John Grace who will be assisting in the Parish for the next couple of weeks whilst Fr Gerry is on holidays. We are grateful for his presence.

SAFEGUARDING SUNDAY 10 Sep 2023 :

This weekend, the Catholic Church in Australia marks Safeguarding Sunday, an opportunity to pray for those who have been abused, their families and supporters. Jubilee Parish is committed to the care, wellbeing and protection of children, young people and people at risk in the community and our practices support this commitment. Mindful of the theme for Child Protection Week, may we work together to ensure all people feel safe and supported.

FUNERAL: There will be a funeral Mass held for the late Betty Jackson at St Finbarr's Church on Monday 11 September at 10.30am. May she rest in the arms of our Holy Father.

EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS, also called Universal Exaltation of the Holy and Life-Giving Cross or Holy Cross Day, liturgical feast celebrated on September 14 to honour the cross on which Jesus Christ was crucified. In the Eastern churches the feast dates back to the dedication of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre (the site of Christ's tomb) in Jerusalem circa 335. It was adopted by the Roman Catholic Church in the 7th century and is also observed in various Protestant traditions, including Lutheranism and Anglicanism.

The universal symbol of the Christian faith, the cross represents Christ's victory over death. The feast celebrates the redemptive transformation of a barbaric instrument of torture into a divine "tree of life" that brings hope to humankind. In some traditions, a cross is oriented to the cardinal directions to represent the universal nature of Christ's sacrifice and prayers are said for the salvation of all. Fr Marty

WELCOME : Fr. Heebok Lee (Michael) who has been appointed as chaplain for the Korean Catholic Community.

Fr Michael was ordained 6 July 2003 and studied Sociology in Catholicism in Rome. He was also a professor at the Sangji Catholic University during his time in Korea. He is expected to arrive within the next couple of weeks. 환영

POPE FRANCIS TO PUBLISH FOLLOW UP TO LAUDATO SI' ON 4 OCTOBER.

The Pope says : "On that date, I plan on publishing an exhortation, a second Laudato si', " "Let us join our Christian brothers and sisters in the commitment to care for creation as a sacred gift from the Creator." "It is necessary to stand with the victims of environmental and climate injustice, striving to end the senseless war on our common home which is a terrible world war. I urge all of you to work and pray for it to abound with life once in." ( source Vatican News)

CELEBRATING THE GIFTS OF EARTH. On Sunday 24 September, at St Mary Magdalene's 8.00am Mass, we will be giving thanks for the Gifts of the Earth—for food and nourishment that the earth provides. All are welcome and invited to bring with them any fruits, vegetables, herbs etc from their garden, which will be a visible symbol of the Gifts of the Earth. These will be blessed, then later given to a food pantry for distribution to those for whom fresh fruit and vegetables are a luxury.

GOING DEEPER is a ten-session online series of video discussions about the heart of the Catholic faith. It explores different aspects of what it means to live a Catholic life. Together we will dive beneath the teachings and practices and instead ponder, 'what is this all for?' Here we enter into the wonder and mystery of God's relationship with each of us individually and collectively. Going Deeper can be undertaken at any time and at the pace of each participant, and will run for several months at a time. To register for the next course starting September 2023 go to : <http://www.goingdeeper.org.au/>

LITURGY NOTES: THE COLLECTION In the early years of Christianity, the faithful brought bread and wine with them to church to be used in the celebration of the Eucharist. What wasn't used at the Mass was given to the poor and needy. Later, people started bringing other gifts of food or money which were offered for the work of the Church. In most parishes a collection of money is taken up during the Preparation of Gifts. This action is an integral part of the liturgy because our offering links us to the sacrifice of the cross and the money will be used in the mission of the Church. Visitors to a Catholic Church are often surprised (and sometimes embarrassed!) when the collection plate comes around a second time at Mass, usually after Communion. Having two collections is a way of separating donations for the support of the clergy from contributions to the cost of the parish services and operations.

The Education Ministry of Jubilee Catholic Parish

St Finbarr's School, Ashgrove. St Joseph's School, Bardon. St Ambrose School, Newmarket

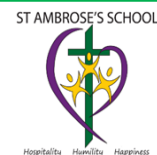

St Finbarr's teachers have had a busy week engaging in extra learning as part of their professional learning mandatory requirements. To maintain their accreditation to teach in a Catholic school, teachers undertake five hours of professional learning across the year. This week, teachers came together after school for a twilight session, where they engaged in learning more about meditative prayer practices from a religious but also wellbeing perspective.

Friday's student free day was another opportunity where teachers from St Finbarr's joined with staff from St Ambrose's to learn more about the new Australian Curriculum, Version 9 and in particular the English Curriculum. This is not an entirely new curriculum but one that has been refined and revised to be more relevant and effective for student learning. It was a great opportunity for schools in our Jubilee parish to connect and learn together.

This week we witnessed an incredible showcase of talent at our Arts Showcase event. First and foremost, thank you to Mrs. Pryor for her exceptional organisation of this special event. With approximately 200 tickets sold for the Matinee performance and an amazing 600 tickets for the evening performance, it's clear that our school community enthusiastically embraced this creative extravaganza. What truly makes this event special is that it provided every student at St. Joseph's the opportunity to shine on the stage, fostering confidence and self-expression. A special thank you to the P&F who provided funds for the upgrading of our hall lighting, stage and AV equipment earlier this year.

In the spirit of fostering connections, we also commend our students who participated in the recent Family Mass. We believe that nurturing connection with the Parish is integral to our mission, as it reinforces the sense of community and shared values that make St. Joseph's a truly exceptional place of learning and faith. We look forward to more opportunities for our students to shine and our community to unite in the future.

This week is National Child Protection Week and our Year 2 students had a very special book reading by ThinkuKnow.. ThinkUKnow (TUK) Australia is an evidence-based education program led by the Australian Federal Police, to prevent online child sexual exploitation. The program is pro-technology and addresses topics including self-generated child abuse material, online grooming, sexual extortion, and importantly encourages help-seeking behaviour. The children's book Jack Changes the Game is a first-of-its-kind resource developed by law enforcement to support parents, carers and educators to have conversations with their children about online child sexual exploitation. It was written by notable children's author Tess Rowley and illustrated by Shannon Horsfall. To accompany the book, ThinkUKnow has developed at-home learning activities, as well as readings of the book. These are available at ThinkUKnow.org.au. The book is also available for free, as an eBook on the ThinkUKnow website.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (all bow) born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

In Transition

As a Parish family we welcome Jackson Hancock, Leo Crunkhorn and Jack Goodwin who were baptised this weekend.

We especially pray for Betty Jackson who recently passed away and for Ray Garske whose anniversary occurs at this time and all the souls of the faithful departed; May they rest in peace.
