It is not uncommon to hear people describe a paranormal event indicating that someone deceased has paid them a visit. A cold wind, a translucent image floating in mid-air, the feeling of a presence, a mysterious apparition, etc. People will relate this sort of thing with a sense of wonder and fear, believing someone who is dead is trying to make contact with the living world.

Yet, the reality of the risen Christ for many is so very hard to believe.

In the days following Jesus' resurrection, the gospels record that Jesus met with his disciples on a number of occasions. In today's gospel, John describes Jesus meeting them on the beach where they are fishing. John does not describe an "other worldly" mysterious being. He describes a living person who speaks with the disciples, gives them a good fishing tip, then sits down and has breakfast with them. This is not the ghost of Jesus. This is the risen, living Christ amongst them.

When Jesus came to his disciples on the beach, he was not mysterious, not hard to find nor hard to recognise. Jesus wanted his disciples to know him and be sure of him, because he had a very important mission to give them. On that beach 2000 years ago, the living Christ told Peter, "feed my lambs...look after my sheep...feed my sheep". Nothing has changed. The living Christ is among us still, he wants us, his disciples to know him, recognise him and trust him and to carry on with the same mission he gave Peter, "feed my lambs...look after my sheep...feed my sheep".

Flowing water: With the blessing of holy water at Easter, the holy water fonts will be refilled. The sacristans will clean them out regularly.

Third Sunday of Easter – 1 MAY 2022 (YEAR C)

Proper of the Mass

First Reading: Acts 5:27-32, 40-41 Second Reading: Revelation 5:11-14

Response: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia! Alleluia! Christ is risen, the Lord of all creation; he has shown pity on all people. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 21:1-19

FIRST COMMUNION: A big congratulations to Kaitlyn Fowler, Connor O'Rourke & Benjamin Goodwin who were welcomed to the table of the Lord for the first time. May the blessing of the Lord Jesus be poured on them from this day forward.

Welcome back to Fr Dang after his couple of weeks holiday. We hope the break was refreshing and brings you back to the shores of Jubilee ready and willing to nurture the flock! Many thanks to Fr Gerard Hall for stepping in as our regular supply in time of need and presiding at mass.

Labour Day: In the early days of Australia, working conditions were less than favourable. Long days, low pay and harsh conditions made the average worker's life tough. This eventually led to the Stonemasons and building workers in 1856 to march from the University of Melbourne to Parliament House in hope of securing a better deal. Flying the flag for the 8 hour day – eight hours for work, eight hours for recreation, and eight hours for rest – they were laying the groundwork for what we more commonly refer to these days as the 'work/life balance'.

Their protest successful. They are noted as the first group of unified workers in the world to fight for, and get, an eight-hour day with no reduction in pay. This event was such an achievement for the workers that it signified the birth of the public holiday we refer to as Labour Day. It is Australian irony that work is celebrated by a day of no work. As people of the resurrection we believe in the dignity of all. Everyone's abilities and time to be employed justly. We give thanks to God for the retired, those with work, and those whose work is unpaid. We pray for those seeking work, and those embarking upon their careers. Keep us mindful of those whose work is underpaid, the underemployed and unemployed.

Rooves, rust and where I would rather not be going!

- Mackillop Place (old school building Fernberg Rd) has had a full roof replacement because it had succumbed to rust and was raining on internal occupants. An expensive exercise that was done during the February rain.
- St Joan of Arc veranda has leaked for ages. Talk to the locals about the sacristy!! A soggy story. The entrance, sacristy and veranda roof is gone. A new one being fixed along the same structural lines. Not much to be seen but hopefully a working roof.
- Catholic Early Ed Care in Herbert St. (the old bingo hall) has gone out in sympathy with the school building on the site. Leaks and leaks. Catholic Early Ed Care wish to remain in the building so a new roof is coming there.
- Lavalla Centre roof is growing a tree. As well, original structural issues have water ingress. Because this building is heritage listed the parish is forced to replace the galvanised roof with a similar galvanised roof. Definitely an expensive investment.
- Sacred Heart sacristy roof. Yes, I know it leaks. Plumbers and roofers have been up on top but cannot find the problem. The problem is an enclosed box gutter, but where the precise problems are is frustrating for all. Problem being pursued and needs solution if jammed external door is to be rectified.

Jesus should have had some plumbers and roofers in his disciples. The parish is certainly investing in them this year!!

PRAYER FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE IN UKRAINE

God of peace and justice,
who change the hardened heart
and break the power of violence,
we entrust the people of Ukraine to you.

Protect them in this time of peril;
let them know not death but life,
not slavery but freedom.

You are Father of all;
we are brothers and sisters.

Give us the strength
to live that truth in love,
choosing peace not war.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Rest in Peace:

ANZAC Day

St Joseph's school community attended the ANZAC Day march at Ashgrove on Monday 25 April.

Despite the heavy rain, we had a great turnout. The students gathered in Betheden Tce and marched to the park near Ashgrove Kindy. Two of our Yr 6 students, Chloe and Aislinn, laid our wreath.

Then on Tuesday, we had our whole school Assembly to commemorate ANZAC Day. The Student Council led us in prayer. Major Horandner, a parent of Oliver in yr 1, attended, laid a wreath and read the Ode. Our students were very respectful throughout the services. Lest we forget.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of goodwill.

We praise you, we bless you,
We adore you, we glorify you.

We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world
have mercy on us;

You take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer.

You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us

For you alone are the Holy One,
You alone are the Lord,

You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

Living and Learning in Faith and Love

We have many special days throughout the year, but ANZAC Day is one that is very important. It is difficult to get through the day without shedding several tears when you hear the astonishing stories of those who have experienced the tragedy of war. Out of what is so horrible, good must surely come and it seems to come in the shape of phenomenal strength and resilience, to survive something that is not normal. I proudly walked with our students, staff and families on Monday and loved that people clap, cheer and parents proudly take videos and pictures of their children as they march. ANZAC Day is a wonderful day, that we should encourage and hold dear to our hearts. Our students demonstrated wonderful respect. Thank you to all who joined us, it was a great day and as always, a humbling experience. Next Thursday, May 5, we will take time to celebrate another special mass, with our Mother's Day Mass. This mass will be a whole school mass and we will acknowledge all the wonderful women in our lives. I hope all our Mums, Grandmothers, and special female carers can join us.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (all bow) born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Anzac Day 2022

Prep had a busy day last Friday learning all about the significance of ANZAC Day. They made delicious Anzac Biscuits and participated in a variety of activities to celebrate and acknowledge the contribution and sacrifices made by the ANZAC men and women.

Despite the dismal weather on Monday, many of our students, families, and staff were able to remember and honour the ANZACs by attending the Ashgrove Anzac Day march. We were fortunate to be able to listen to a very inspiring message for us all about "Gratitude" when reflecting on our country's past and
