14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

You may have heard that in polite company, one should never discuss politics or religion. To do so may risk causing offence. Your friends might reject you! You may not be invited back! Best to go quietly, safely; keep what you think to yourself. It's a very safe rule to live by, keeping what you truly believe a closely guarded secret.

As Christians, we are not called to live safely. We are in fact called to live dangerously. We are required to stand up for what we believe in and spread, what is for some the uncomfortable truth of God's love for us; all of us. It is after all the one true, eternal leveller. In the only thing that actually matters: not money, not power, not possessions, not brains, not beauty, but it is in the love of God, that we are all equal. Saying this out loud and acting by this overtly in polite company can get you into a lot of trouble. Not everyone wants to be equal.

In today's readings, we have three great men who chose to live dangerously, Ezekiel, Paul and Jesus. God called on each of them to go out into polite company and talk about politics and religion (because the two could not really be separated) and to keep spreading the word of God's love and salvation even when the polite company became down right rude – and it did. And yes they caused offence, and they were rejected and worse...

God is still calling on us today to talk about politics and religion in all kinds of company. Even today, the two are still inextricably linked; you can't talk about one without talking about the other. And so our Christian values and Catholic doctrine necessarily inform and direct our political actions on issues such as abortion law, assisted dying law, treatment of refugees, climate change action, disability support, indigenous issues, aged care and international relations and foreign aid. We can "talk" about politics and religion not just by what we say but by what we do, how we vote, what we watch on TV, how we use social media, how we invest our money, what we buy, where we go, how we treat others. There are many ways to send the message to make sure everyone knows that God loves them and that our politicians and other decision makers know that this is an important aspect of our social fabric.

Like those who have gone before us, if we accept the challenge, we will go strengthened by the Holy Spirit to meet it. So next time you have the choice to be either courteous or courageous in polite company, say a prayer to the Holy Spirit, he'll tell you what to do.

If you have any dump vouchers laying around the parish office would greatly appreciate them.

They are due to expire on August 31 and would be snapped up by Terry our groundsman. Thank you Natsic week: Every year, Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First Peoples in the Catholic Church.

National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council has decided to adopt the NAIDOC theme for 2021 – Heal Country. Today our world is in need of healing – environmentally, spiritually and socially. We must all come together as a global community to fight the injustices of inequality, racism and environmental damage.

They hope that these resources will help your community to begin to Heal and in turn aid in the healing of those in most need.

Bishop Columba Macbeth-Green. "We must continue to reach out and provide opportunities where we may be enriched and nourished by their deep spirituality, culture and love for Jesus Christ by opening the doors to our hearts and homes."

Peter's Pence – July 3/4 2021: Each year parishes in the Archdiocese take up the Peter's Pence collection as a retiring collection.

The Peter's Pence Collection gives Catholics in Australia an opportunity to join in communion with the Catholic faithful throughout the world in support of the charitable works of the Holy See.

- The Peter's Pence Collection is an annual collection of the Catholic Church around the world.
- The collection allows the Holy Father to respond to the most needy throughout the world, to offer timely, effective emergency assistance to our suffering brothers and sisters

St Vincent de Paul: Our local SVDP conference are doing the Sausage BBQ on Caxton St at St Thomas More today Sunday 4 July prior to the Broncos Sharks Football Game. Wave, say hi and buy a sausage or two to support our local Vinnies.

Peter ToRot (1912-1945) was caught up in the Japanese invasion of Papua New Guinea in 1942 and in the growing repression during World War II.

Born on the island of New Britain he was a second generation Catholic on the island. In 1933 he was invested with the catechist cross and assigned to his own village to assist the MSC pastor. Three years later he married and they had three children only one of whom survived childhood. The Catholic couple lived their faith actively as Peter committed himself to the pastoral ministry of teaching in the school and visiting the sick.

With the arrival of the invading forces all foreign missionaries were sent to a prison camp. Peter, a local layman, could remain. His ministry expanded to include celebrating baptism, witnessing marriages, caring for the sick and poor, as well as preaching the gospel and gathering people for prayer.

In 1945 he was arrested because of his continued ministry and eventually died through medically induced means.

He was beatified by Pope John Paul II in Port Moresby in 1995.

THANK YOU! A huge amount of organization and work went into the celebration of my Jubilee mass. Thanks you everyone: Fr Rony, Linda, Cathy and office staff, sacristans, musicians, singers, welcomers, marshals, ministers and church cleaners. Afterwards was a real treat with assistance for setting up, drinks, tea and coffee, serving and cleaning up afterwards. All went so marvellously well. My heartfelt gratitude to everyone.
If you were wondering about what was in the big box ... it was this very elegant wine decanter. Chosen for its height obviously! Fr Rony and I will give it a go this weekend. Thank you very much Jubilee Parish!

Volunteering at Jubilee: Together with our hardworking clergy and parish staff, Jubilee Parish operates with the assistance of a large team of volunteers in many ministries including reading at Mass, planning liturgy, marshalling, preparing the church for Mass and many others. These efforts largely go unnoticed until they are not performed and it would not be possible to operate a parish as large as Jubilee without the dedication of our many volunteers. Thank you, volunteers, for the work that you do.

If you're interested in volunteering for any role in the parish, the first step is to chat with one of the volunteers or Safeguarding coordinator in your local church community. The next step is to complete the volunteer registration on the Archdiocese website at <http://archbne.org/welcome>.

Depending on the role you volunteer for, you will be required to undertake some online Safeguarding training to ensure you understand and abide by the processes designed to keep safe the community you serve. For ministries involving adults-at-risk, this will require a police check, while ministries involving children require a Blue Card. Please know that these checks are not a reflection on your abilities, intentions or dedication, but a legal and moral requirement to ensure the most vulnerable members of our community continue to remain and feel safe.

All volunteers are required to complete Safeguarding training every two years and to fill in and return the Training Completion Form to ensure we have a record of training completed. Links to the training and form are available on the Safeguarding Training page of the Archdiocese website. <https://brisbanecatholic.org.au/safeguarding/safeguarding-training/>

Laudato si' campaign for a cleaner environment in Zimbabwe

The Zimbabwe Catholic Commission for the Laity (ZCCL) through the Catholic Professionals Network of Zimbabwe has launched a campaign to preserve the environment in the spirit of Laudato Si'. It encourages people to practice environmentally friendly ways in every business venture.

Pope Francis in this Encyclical says: "We need a conversation which includes everyone, since the environmental challenge we are undergoing, and its human roots, concerns and affects us all." The project involves encouraging Zimbabweans, but especially young children and the youth, to spearhead and take part in activities that involve caring for the environment in their communities. There are several practices that degrade the environment such as cutting trees, illegal mining, burning bushes, and littering surroundings with paper, plastic and so on. Urban migration has resulted in the overpopulation of cities. This in turn has compromised and complicated hygiene standards for most urban areas in Zimbabwe. There is very little being done to upgrade the water and sanitation facilities. It is from this background that the church, through its laity, seeks to curb the danger of environmental pollution in the country. Fr Rony

Cerise and blue. The Rosalie Old Boys web site has now gone live. www.rosalieoldboys.com.au
The old boys association hope you will pass the link on to old boys, your friends and family. Please encourage them to contact the association and send their details, including name, address, mobile number and the year they finished at the college and the level they attained. They need this information so they can be grouped into their correct class year even if they left before Year 12.

The web site will be updated regularly so please visit often to keep up with events and news.

First Indian Christian Day on 3 July

On 3 July, the feast day of Saint Thomas, Christians of all denominations will celebrate Indian Christian Day (Yeshu Bhakti Divas) for the first time. The event, the idea of members of the country's various Churches, is meant to highlight the fact that Christianity is not a foreign religion in India. The date was chosen because traditionally this day celebrates Saint Thomas the Apostle coming to India in 52 AD with the gospel message of Jesus. Saint Thomas was martyred near Chennai in 72 AD.

Verbite Father, Babu Joseph, former spokesperson of the Catholic Bishop's Conference of India, said, "this would be an important step in making Christianity as part of Indian history and ethos.... Christianity is part and parcel of Indian history for the last 2,000 years and has given birth to many indigenised forms of Christian life. Christianity has introduced new social teachings which worked as catalyst in several social reform movements and has been instrumental in introducing modern education". Fr Rony

Plenary Council Update – Agenda Released:

The Plenary Council Agenda has now been released. It is accessible online plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au. It has emerged from three years and several layers of prayer, listening, dialogue and discernment, and will shape the program of the Council's assemblies – the first of which opens on October 3 this year.

PLENARY COUNCIL PRAYER CAMPAIGN: People across the country are invited to participate in the "Fan the Flame" prayer campaign leading up to the first assembly of the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia. The assembly starts on October 3. Campaign materials include resources for personal and communal prayer, reflections, musical suggestions and multimedia content. Gloria Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,
We adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (all bow)
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

In Transition

We rejoice with the families of Eleanor Adeney & Tomasz Holownia who celebrated their wedding this weekend.

We especially pray for Shirley McCorkindale who passed away last week.

WE PRAY FOR THE SOULS OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED; MAY THEY REST IN PEACE.
