Who is my neighbour? That is the question.

Pharisees weren't bad people. They believed that to get to heaven they needed to separate themselves from others. Their way was to avoid people and things that would cause impurity. Corpses were unclean. Understandable. Samaritans were despised.

For the Pharisees, a good Samaritan - a contradiction.

Priest and Levite are within their system. They have very valid reasons not to get involved. The perspective and system block their creative response.

The Samaritan has no such hangups. He gives himself to the victim and situation. His generosity is expressive of the prodigious generosity of God.

So, who is my neighbour that is ignored or avoided?

It is NAIDOC week. What is my attitude to Australia's First Peoples? Refugees? Street people? Those I disagree strongly with?

The gospel inquirer is open to learning.

Openness can accept the injunction, "Go and do likewise."

Fr Gerry

Fr El Louie Jimenez. On the 29th June the Archdiocese celebrated joyfully the ordination of Louie. At short notice he is returning to preside at this Saturday's 4.30pm Mass at Sacred Heart. It is a treat for him to be with us. We are privileged to have him preside at mass before taking up an Associate Pastor appointment. He is hoping his appointment is announced at the end of this week. We will all be waiting with anticipation!! Blessings on Fr Louie's priestly ministry. Fr Gerry

Congratulations to Kyra & Keane Hessing who received both the Sacrament of Confirmation and First Holy Communion on Sunday. I would like to take this opportunity to especially thank all of the children's parents for their ongoing support in preparing for this major milestone and meaningful moment in their faith journey. May the blessing of the Lord Jesus be poured on them from this day. Fr Dang

July 11: Feast of St. Benedict, Abbot

St. Benedict was born into a noble family around 480 A.D. in Nursia (Italy). He went to Rome to pursue a classical education. Disheartened there by the worldly lifestyle around him, he traveled south to Subiaco, where a monk named Romanus guided him in the spiritual life. Benedict lived in solitude for the several years, and during this period his reputation for holiness grew. In time, community of monks asked Benedict to become their abbot. (The word “abbot” is derived from the Aramaic term abba, meaning “father.”) Later, Benedict began organizing his own disciples into communities of monks. Around 529 A.D., he arrived in Monte Cassino, where he founded a monastery and composed his famous Holy Rule for monks living in community. The Rule, with all of its wisdom, has led the Church to honor Benedict as the Father of Western Monasticism. The central theme of Benedictine living is the healthy balance between “ora et labora” (prayer and work).

Let us pray. O God, who made the Abbot Saint Benedict an outstanding master in the school of divine service, grant, we pray, that, putting nothing before love of you, we may hasten with a loving heart in the way of your commands. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. (the opening prayer for the Mass on the Feast of St. Benedict, Abbot)

Framework of motion and voting

During the second assembly of the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia, the Council's 277 Members – bishops, priests, religious and lay people – will all vote on the dozens of motions that have emerged from the four-year journey. On each of the first four days of the second assembly, the Members will consider, reflect upon and pray about two sections of the Motions and Amendments document that was published on June 30.

Latest Update from Plenary Council Gathering: Last Thursday and Friday we saw four motions passed and two which did not. For a comprehensive account of voting outcomes of the Plenary council go to this link: <https://plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au/motions-and-voting/>

Please join us for a hot cuppa after the 7.30am Mass at St Joan of Arc Church, Sunday the 17th of July 2022

Today is Sea Sunday, when the church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Without them, we would not have most of the items we rely on for daily living. Even during a pandemic, seafarers continue to bring into our ports products that sustain our population and economy. The Appeal today is for Stella Maris, Apostleship of the Sea, the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church. It supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. To assist this ministry, please send your donations to: <https://stellamarisaustralia.org/sea-sunday-appeal/>

My hobby. While growing up I enjoyed reading novels and magazines. I read educative, historical, and cultural novels. Later I started reading newspapers and magazines, especially the ones about tourism and traveling. As a young boy apart from reading, I enjoyed playing table tennis.

My enthusiasm for cooking and singing began when I normally kept my mum company in the kitchen. She loves singing and sings whenever she is less busy. I started developing an interest in soccer while sitting with my father every night while he watched soccer and the news. With this growing interest, I began playing soccer with my friends. I played video games as well, especially soccer. Now I follow and watch most of the top leagues in soccer and I am big fan of Chelsea football club in England and Enyimba football club in Nigeria.

I never liked any game played with the hand, but coming to PNG and seeing people watch State of Origin, spurred my curiosity about Rugby and now I am supporting the Broncos.

My voracious reading about tourism, especially culture and traditions of other people, made me develop an interest in traveling. Then becoming a priest channelled and shaped this desire in me to become a missionary priest. Now travelling and meeting people has become my number one 'hobby'. Fr. Fortune

RELIGIOUS FESTIVALS OF OTHER FAITHS 10-12 July-Eid al-Adha(Islam)

This celebration is called the 'Festival of the Sacrifice'. It remembers Ibrahim's (Abraham's) willingness to sacrifice his son, thereby obeying God's command. However, it also remembers that God provided a lamb for the sacrifice instead of his son, who according to tradition was Ishmael.

The feast usually occurs at the end of the Hajj, the yearly pilgrimage to Mecca. During this time, Muslims may sacrifice an animal that meets certain regulations and then the meat is shared among the poor and needy, family and friends.

Conversations about money can be challenging! One thing that can help is to talk about the values behind the choices to spend or save. This enables us to better embrace each other's values and make decisions from a place of unity.

As NAIDOC week comes to a close we pray:

NATIONAL RECONCILIATION PRAYER

Creator spirit,
All creation once declared your glory,
Your laws were honoured and trusted,
Forgive us our neglect as our country approaches
The most critical moment in its history.
Listen to our prayer as we turn to you,
Hear our cry of our land and its people,
Just as you heard the cry of Jesus,
Your Son, on the Cross.
Help us to replace our national shame
With true national pride by restoring the dignity of our First People whose antiquity is unsurpassed.
May our faith and trust in you increase.
Only then will our nation grow strong
And be a worthy place for all who wish to make their home in our land.
Amen

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (all bow) born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
