Privacy collection statement

The parishes of the Archdiocese of Brisbane (we, us or our) may collect, use and disclose personal information about you. We collect personal information directly from you and may also collect personal information passively through our website.

We collect your personal information to fulfil the mission and directions of our organisation, to administer the sacraments and provide pastoral care to you, to provide you with other services and products you are seeking, to communicate with you about the services and products we offer, to solicit donations and to comply with our legal and regulatory requirements. If the personal information you provide to the parishes is incomplete or inaccurate, the parishes may be unable to provide you, or someone else you know, with the services or products you, or they, are seeking.

We may disclose personal information about you to our parishes, schools and agencies and service providers for the purpose for which it was collected to assist us in operating our organisation.

If you were baptised overseas, we are required by Church Law to advise that overseas parish of other sacraments you have received. By giving us your personal information you consent to us disclosing that information to the overseas parish. By consenting to the disclosure of your personal information, Australian Privacy Principle 8.1 does not apply and you agree that we do not have to take reasonable steps to ensure that information is treated in accordance with the Privacy Act.

Our Privacy Policy (www.bne.catholic.net.au or on request) sets out how you can access and ask for correction of your personal information, how you can complain about privacy-related matters and how we respond to complaints.
