Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 30 June / 1 July, 2018

Back to one of Mark's 'sandwich gospel' stories where he inserts a story within a story. Possibly this reflects the reality of our lives with incident within incident, within incident. Life can be like that at times. Part of life's messiness is its roll and tumble of sickness and death. This week's gospel has various ways in which people can respond to these realities, as well as God's invitations. We might want to deny, discount and even try to avoid it. Jesus inspires us to engage, speak up, have faith and this faith will bring peace and cause us to 'rise up' even when disease would seem to be taking life from us. Plenty for us to feed on!

Because of her, we can: The role of women in families and communities and in the Catholic Church is the focus of this year's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday, to be celebrated on July 1. The theme for this year's celebration "Because of her, we can" – is shared with the theme for NAIDOC week, to be held from July 8-15. In its annual message, the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference praised the role of women, especially mothers and grandmothers, in the life of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities. It also speaks of the role model of the Virgin Mary in the life of the Catholic Church. In the face of injustice in various ways, Indigenous women have "battled, and largely succeeded, in holding Indigenous families together" Australian Catholic Bishops.

In a video <https://www.catholicweekly.com.au/bishops-focus-on-mothers-this-aboriginal-and-torres-strait-islander-sunday/> that shares the bishops' message and images of Indigenous life and worship, Bishop Christopher Saunders of Broome explains that the experiences of many Indigenous women are captured in the iconic Marian image of the Pieta – depicting Mary holding the broken body of Jesus. "The Pieta is a prayerful image of motherhood to be nurtured, supported and prayed for in our community. The loving care that this masterpiece portrays cannot be separated from the sorrow of the reality it represents. And yet mothers, like Mary, the Mother of the Church, in their maternal mission assist others to rise above the tragedies and tribulations of life in the knowledge that greater moments await us when in hope and in faith we are brought out of darkness into His own wonderful light."

Peter's Pence Collection: "At all Masses this weekend (30 June and 1 July) the annual Peter's Pence Collection will be taken up in support of the global ministry of Pope Francis. Please give generously to this worthy cause as a sign of our communion with the universal Church and an understanding of the many almsgiving needs requests made of the Pope." Monsignor Peter Meneely, Vicar General. Cont. next page

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - 1 JULY 2018 (YEAR B)

Proper of the Mass

First Reading: Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24 Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15

Response: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death and brought us life through his gospel.

Gospel: Mark 5:21-24, 35-43

What name, and what do you ask of God's Church? This weekend, as the first Sunday of the month, infants to be baptised in our parish during July will be named and marked with the sign of the cross. This is a proud moment for parents and for us as Church. Parents name and accept responsibility to raise their child in the practice and love of the faith. As Church we warmly welcome them with the blessing of God who is Father, Son and Spirit.

St Vincent de Paul State Congress is on this weekend. Attendees are celebrating mass at 8am at St Brigid's Red Hill this Sunday morning. As they gather to deliberate on the front-line ministry they provide, the Eucharist is the nourishment for their marvellous work. We are honoured to welcome them to St Brigid's Church and Jubilee Parish. God bless them and their work of charity.

Goings and Goings: Mila Bagtas has resigned from her position as parish secretary. We thank her for the work she has done, and pray for God's blessings on her future. The position is being advertised and if you are interested please follow up ad on page 3. Thanks for your understanding as the office goes into transition time over the next few weeks. Cathy Currie is going on holidays for this coming week so Jane Cameron and Daniel Toohey are taking care of the office. Gratefulness to all.

Fr Anthony Girvan is on his annual holidays. God bless him! His absence will mean an adjustment to the weekly mass schedule. There will be no mass at St Brigid's Red Hill on Monday 25 June until mid-July when Fr Anthony returns. Muchas Gracias to the Marists who assist.

Retirement going: the smile on Rosie Condon's face is growing wider every day! It is mirrored too on the faces of her grandchildren. Rosie is retiring as our finance officer after being with the parish through nineteen years of its growth. That is a huge bundle of finances and the parish is indebted for her diligent and dedicated work. Ever gracious and willing, Rosie will be missed. May God bless her and smile upon her, and give her many lively days with family and friends.

Still Listening: Fr Gerry is attending the Latin American Pastoral Council meeting on Wednesday to hear from them what they perceive as the strengths and opportunities in their being a vital part of our parish. We are grateful for the life, energy and diversity they bring to this parish. This is an opportunity to nurture the strong ties that exist. This is pretty well the last of the individual listening sessions. Discernment will follow.

First Friday Anointing Mass is this Friday 6 July at Sacred Heart Rosalie at 9am. (No mass at Bardon this coming Friday morning.) All are welcome to celebrate the healing power of Christ as we 'touch the cloak' of Jesus and have him 'take us by the hand' and raise us up in these sacraments. Refreshing food and conversation follow in the Fr Denis Power building afterwards.

Liturgy Meeting: Liturgy meeting on Saturday 7 July at 10am at the parish office. Focus will be on COPYRIGHT on music, slides and any booklets created for liturgies. Please highlight this for whoever is the music co-ordinator within your church community. This is an important meeting to ensure the parish is complying with the legal requirements. Group will pray, discuss and grow in our understanding of the liturgy.

Sacristan St Brigid's Red Hill: A dynamic duo of Ray and Paul are taking up the baton from Denis for preparation and closing at Sunday mass. The community is very grateful to them. It remains unclear who is stepping up to the plate on Thursday morning. It could make it very interesting for the start of mass this coming Thursday?? Suggestions to Fr Gerry, Fr Marty or the office.

Rosalie Convent: The purchase of the convent is finalised. It is now owned by the parish. Under the guidance of the Spirit the next steps will gradually unfold.

Fr Gerry

Our five Senses

By Fr Marty

Five years ago, I underwent a thirty day silent retreat to prepare for priesthood. It was an Ignatian retreat that really goes deep. No stone is left unturned in terms of looking at who you are and how we are called to prayer.

One of the 'graces' of the thirty day silent retreat is since you cannot talk, all your other senses come into play. In the world at the moment, we are so crowded with words and talking. Spend five minutes just listening down the street or in the classroom, or at the shops and you will hear it. It's just so noisy.

Tuning into our other senses slows us down and makes us realise that the continual bombardment of words contributes to a negative mindset and a negative view of the world.

When was the last time you really smelt your food, or admired the way someone's face looks? When was the last time you just held someone's hand or listened to the rolling of the waves at the beach?

God is waiting for us to use our senses, to tune into Creation.

Wake up and look, feel, smell, taste and listen. God is waiting for you in these senses.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
We adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty
Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
(all bow)
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
